Publisher Response

We are thrilled to announce that the Reading Horizons Discovery[®] program has achieved an “All Green” rating in one of the first reviews using the updated Foundational Skills rubric. This outstanding recognition underscores the program’s close alignment with reading research, clear guidance for teachers, and readiness to meet the needs of all learners.

We extend our gratitude to the EdReports team and the panel of reviewers for their rigorous evaluation and acknowledgment of the instructional value embedded within the Reading Horizons Discovery[®] program. Their commitment to ensuring the highest standards of educational quality is commendable.

Reading Horizons Discovery[®] was created by teachers, with teachers, for teachers. With the heart of this curriculum and instructional method intact from the original author, we continue to honor Charlotte Lockhart, whose vision and expertise have been transforming the lives of readers for more than 40 years. Her unwavering dedication to literacy education serves as a constant source of inspiration as we build upon her legacy to further the program’s impact.

We also acknowledge the invaluable contributions of the Reading Horizons team that brought this updated version of the program to life. Their collective expertise, passion, and commitment to excellence have been crucial in ensuring the program’s success. We extend our appreciation to the educators and students whose time spent testing and providing feedback during development helped shape refinements for the program, prioritizing effectiveness, accessibility, and engagement.

At Reading Horizons, we believe that literacy is opportunity. As we celebrate this significant achievement, we reaffirm our commitment to promoting literacy proficiency and fostering a lifelong love of reading for students across the globe. The “All Green” rating from EdReports is a testament to our dedication to providing educators with the tools they need to unlock the full potential of every learner.

Together, we will continue to uphold the highest standards of educational quality and empower educators to make a profound and lasting impact on the lives of their students. Thank you for joining us on this journey toward a brighter future through literacy.
